

KARL GIVES UP PLAN TO SEIZE RULE

Hungarian Official Says Former Emperor Will Prevent Coup

ULTIMATUM SENT

Czechs, Slavs and Rumanians Threatened War—Turn to Switzerland—March on Budapest

Vienna, April 1.—The Hungarian Charge d'Affaires has notified Austria that former Emperor Karl will return to Switzerland. The Swiss will agree to his return.

One of the foreign missions here today got in telephone communication with its mission in Budapest and received a denial of the rumor of the resignation of the regent, Horthy.

The mission was assured that Budapest was quiet and that Horthy had the situation in hand.

Paris, April 1.—President Masaryk yesterday sent an ultimatum to the Hungarian Government, saying that the restoration of the Hapsburgs would be regarded as a casus belli by Czechoslovakia.

The Belgrade Government has instructed the general staff to order a mobilization along the Jugo-Slav-Hungarian frontier, and 25,000 Serbian troops are reported to be massing along the Drave river.

Two divisions of Rumanian cavalry are concentrated in the Arad and Timisoara regions, where the principal railway entry points into Hungary are located.

Several regiments of Bohemian troops have been ordered to Gran, the nearest point to Budapest, by the Czechoslovakian Government.

Representatives of the Little Entente at Paris announce that they were prepared to prevent the restoration of former Emperor Karl and his 8-year-old son Otto or any member of the Hapsburg dynasty by force.

The Italian Ambassador to France called on Premier Briand today. He received the assurance that the French Government does not support Karl.
Immediately afterward the Foreign Office sent statements to all French representatives abroad confirming this.

Early today it was reported from Vienna that 30,000 troops under General Lehar, with former Emperor Karl riding on a white horse at the head of the column, started marching toward Budapest last midnight.

The report said that 1,000 peasants, former soldiers, began rallying around the former Emperor shortly after his arrival at Steinamange and that they were carrying rifles which they had kept hidden since the armistice. Stein-amange was said to be crowded with members of the former Hapsburg court.

the Virginia Seminary in 1915-16,

Railroad Y. M. C. A.

Pictures And Address at First General Meeting Tonight

The railroad Y. M. C. A., of Potomac Yards, is to have its first general meeting tonight at the Mt.
Vernon School. The chief attraction of the evening will be motion pictures furnished by the government for the occasion, entitled, "Fragments of Action."

The pictures are official war pictures and give an actual glimpse of the life of our boys during the strenuous days of the world war. The pictures will be sent out this evening from Washington and will be in charge of special messenger as the government will not let the films get out of the war departments hands.

The pictures will be run on the Y. M. C. A. machine. Secretary Wallace who has seen the pictures, says they are the most wonderful that came out of the war. The meeting will hear a talk from the secretary regarding the ambitions of the railroad Y. M. C. A. Questions will also be answered as many of the men are unfamiliar with the definite purpose of the railroad association. About 300 tickets have been distributed by the educational committee and a large crowd is expected.

SEWING CLASS OF Y. M. C. A. TO MEET TOMORROW

The girls sewing class, which is being held for all girls of the city over eight years of age, by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., will meet at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is thought that the class will have to be divided into beginners and advanced sections as some of the girls will be able to do more advanced work than the others.

At three o'clock motion pictures will be shown for the girls and interesting ones have been secured for this week. Parents are invited to see the pictures with the girls.

PIONEERS TO HIKE TO WOODS FOR WILD FLOWERS

The Pioneers of Alexandria will have their first hike Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The hike will start from the Young People's Building and will be to the base of a wild flower hunt. The recent frost has done some violence to wild flowers, but as they usually enjoy more severe weather than cultivated plants, it is thought that many varieties will survive the youngsters.

Three troops are expected to go on the hike, St. Paul's No. 1, Daniel Boone No. 2, and the troop from the Second Baptist Church which has not yet selected a name.

The boys are requested to take with them three sandwiches and an apple or orange, and have a haversack or paper bag in which to carry their flowers. A prize will be given the boy collecting the largest number of varieties, and they will be urged to start a herbarium.

After Fish Dealers

Court Given Treatise on Freshness of Fish

When are fish stale? Well, this question occupied the attention of Justice Snow in the police court today for half an hour. A colored mar-giving the name of Lloyd Byrd, who sells fish for a Washington dealer was charged by Health Officer Foulks with selling fish some of which it was alleged were not altogether in good shape.

Robert Arnold testified he had been in the fish business thirty-five years and he ate two of the fish from this wagon yesterday and suffered no ill effects from them.

Dr. Foulks and Deputy Health Officer Garvey testified that some of the fish appeared in bad shape.

The owner was present and he testified he had instructed his market to sell any fish off color.

The court settled the case by imposing a fine of $10.

Attorney W. P. Woods appeared for the accused. The prisoner was taken in custody by Policeman Cline.

TO FIGHT STRIKE OF COAL MINERS

King George Declares State of Emergency in England

TO USE ANY MEASURE

1,000,000 Workers Leave Pits and 2-000,000 More May Follow—Economies in Effect

London, April 1.—With 1,000,000 miners in the United Kingdom laying down their tools for the second time within six months, and a crisis facing the nation that may involve 2,000,000 more workers, if sympathetic walkouts are declared, King George, in a proclamation issued last night, declared that an emergency exists and that the Government under the Emergency Power act of 1920 would take any measures necessary to handle the situation.

The proclamation asserts that the strike of miners comes under the law which provides for Government action when persons or groups of persons interfere with the supply and distribution of food, water, fuel, light and means of locomotion to deprive the community of the essentials of life.

Rationing measures putting the country on a war time basis already have been ordered.

Reports received in London up to midnight said that men everywhere were leaving the pits. Even the pumpmen and engine-men, who in the strike last October were kept at the mines to keep them in order, but dispatched late yesterday evening say that the engine-men in Scotland, Northumbria, Yorkshire and Monmouthshire have decided to disregard the union orders and will stay at the mines. In a local strike two years ago the Government used salvors to pump out the mines, but in the present emergency has none to spare for this work.

Yesterday was spent in conferences between representatives of the miners' union and the Government with representatives of the owners participating to some extent. No signs of rapprochement were apparent as the leaders separated and went to their homes, although hope was long held out by Sir Robert Stevenson Horn, president of the Board of Trade, that some settlement could be reached before the strike order became effective.

The superficial cause of the strike is the refusal of the Government to continue its control of the mines and the subsidies that will maintain the present level of wages. But, underlying this, is the fear on the part of all organized labor that this is a move toward a general cut of wages. With the mines no longer under Government control, the miners will earn from a few shillings to more than a pound less a week than before.

The railway men and the transport workers—partners with the miners in labor's triple alliance—decided to call executive meetings early next week to decide on the attitude these two unions shall take toward the miners' walkout. If they join, a grave situation will result, for, with 1,000,000 miners out, 2,000,000 other workers ready to join and 2,000,000 persons already idle, production throughout the country will be at a standstill.

The railway men and transport workers were clearly sympathetic yesterday with the stand of the miners'. In connection with their meetings next Tuesday and Wednesday, it is recalled that their threat last fall to call a great national strike in sympathy with the miners' demands then was responsible for the miners' victory then.

The miners are in a far less advantageous position to maintain a strike than they were last fall. Their strike benefit funds were greatly reduced by the long drain on them at that time. The situation has been aggravated by the announcement by the Ministry of Labor that if the miners go out they will not be allowed to draw the allowance of 35 pence a week paid by the Government to unemployed men.

The wartime regulations that are being revived call for economies in Successful Year

Rev. G. J. Hill Final Sermon Sunday as Pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church

The Methodist Protestant Church closes its business for the conference year March 31, 1921.

This had been a very successful year for the church in every department. The Sunday School is in a flourishing condition, both spiritually and financially. It has just closed a contest among the classes of the school and class No. 4, teacher, Mrs. Milton Penn, being the winner in the Lincoln Highway Sunday School contest. This contest will begin this coming Sunday, and will not end until some class has reached New York from San Francisco. This class will be entertained by the defeated classes this month.

The trustees have had a most wonderful year as they have been able to meet all notes and make good payments on debt.

The board of stewards have had the best year in the history of the church in the way of finances.

The church during the past year with a little over 100 members, representing about 52 families, have raised $3,211.00.

The coming conference year which begins today, is the brightest in the history.

The pastor, Rev. G. J. Hill, will preach his farewell sermon this Sunday morning, and this night will read his yearly report. All members are requested to be present Sunday at both services.

Rev. Hill will retire from the ministry for two years owing to ill health. The congregation regrets that Brother Hill is to leave and wishes him God's speed in the recovering of his health.

They also wish to thank the many friends who have assisted them in any way during the past year.

The equipment and other effects of the Virginia Rapid Transit Company today were sold at public auction at the company's office on King street by S. H. Lunt for W. S.
Snow receiver. They brought about $950. Some time ago this company was placed in the hands of receivers.
This company formerly operated a line of buses between this city and Washington.

HOUSES MORE PLENTIFUL

Chicago, April 1.—The peak of the housing shortage has passed, in the opinion of John E. Lloyd, of Philadelphia, president of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association, who addressed a convention of wholesale lumber dealers yesterday.

The influx to the cities from rural districts when work was plentiful and wages high was one of the chief causes of the acute shortage of houses in the larger cities," Mr.
Lloyd said. "People are now flocking back to the farms and smaller towns and houses in cities are becoming more plentiful."

The lumber industry has been generally accused of hindering building by maintenance of prohibitive prices according to John W. McClune, president of the wholesalers association.

"Lumber prices have tumbled," he said, "but labor and materials are still too high for the modest builder."

fuel, light and power. The export of coal stopped at 10 o'clock last night and at midnight the local economy became effective. Within a week there will be cuts in street light and train service and the use of coal for domestic purposes will be under rigid control that will direct the supplies on hand to the essential industries.

Although the public is still dazed by the suddenness of the strike, which has attracted little or no attention until yesterday, the general sentiment is opposed to the miners.
One thing looking in this strike that won't the miners come measure of popular support. It was when the first move of imposing a reduction in the retail price of coal.

Waives Hearing

Man Shot by Police For Attempted Robbery of Wolf's Store Held For Grand Jury

The man giving the name of Walter Smith, a non resident, who was shot the night of March 18 by the police when an effort was made to rob the clothing store of Julius Wolf, 425 King street, has recovered from his wound and this afternoon waived the formality of a preliminary hearing before Justice W. S.
Snow and was held for the action of the grand jury.

When first arrested his name was reported to have been William Smith. The prisoner, however, the police say, claims that his correct name is Walter Smith.

Two other men captured at the time giving the name of John Harris and Oscar Gantt, also non residents, were arraigned in the police court and held for the action of the grand jury on March 19.

Smith was seriously shot and it was at first thought that his wounds would prove fatal. However, he made marked progress in recovering.

TORNADO SWEEPS ALBANY, N. Y.

Albany, Ga., April 1.—The northern part of Albany was swept by a tornado late yesterday that killed one man, a negro; injured 60 persons, half a dozen seriously, and caused property damage estimated at several hundred thousand dollars. The tornado destroyed or partially wrecked approximately 100 dwellings, but its greatest damage was to a dozen or more large industrial plants.

The storm swept a stretch of territory a hundred yards wide and a mile and a quarter long, sometimes passing over a building only to descend with crushing force a few hundred yards farther on.

city, J. E. Holladay.

This morning he addressed a meeting of men at the city Circuit courtroom. Yesterday afternoon he

Robs Bungalow

Morgan Sherwood's Place at Four-Mile Run Cleaned Out by Thieves

Thieves during the week broke into and robbed the bungalow at Four Mile Run, the property of Morgan Sherwood, stage manager of the National Theater, Washington.
The robbery was discovered by Mr.
Sherwood yesterday afternoon. They removed everything they choose to carry away and destroyed most of the other effects in the place.

The thieves also stole a small skiff which was beneath the bungal-ow. Entrance was made through a small window and a boy Mr. Sherwood thinks, was used by the robber in order to enter the small window. The stolen articles are valued at more than $100. Mr. Sherwood this afternoon notified the police here and also the authorities of Arlington county.

C. H. Zimmerman Dead

Funeral Services at 2 O'clock Monday Afternoon

Charles H. Zimmerman, fifty-five years old, one of the best known fish dealers in the city, died at 6:30 o'clock last night at the Alexandria Hospital after a comparatively brief illness.

The deceased for many years conducted a cafe in the city market space and at the time of his death was engaged in business at 109 North Royal street, operating under the name of the Potomac Fish Company.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James S. Jones, 212 North St.
Asaph street, and two sons, Henry G. Zimmerman, of Rosslyn, Arlington county, and Charles F. Zimmeman, of Washington.

Mr. Zimmerman was a member of Alexandria Lodge No. 768, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Osceola Tribe of Red Men and Alma Aerie No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles. A meeting of the Elks will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight to take action on his death.
His funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs.
Jones, 212 North St. Asaph street.
Services will be conducted by Rev.

Bomber Known, All Cities To Get His Description

New York, April 1.—Description of the man alleged to have planted the bomb in the Wall Street explosion was mailed to the authorities of every city in the United States last night.

He is described as being five and one-half feet tall, slightly under middle age and with prominent cheek bones.

He is believed to have been the driver of the dilapidated wagon containing the bomb, which was stopped in front of the subtreasury building at noon, September 16. He is said to have been traced through the horse shoes and bits of harness. The Department of Justice is said to know his name and he is said to have been identified with anarchist organizations.

When the board of estimates meets tomorrow, it is believed the bomb plot reward will be increased from $10,000 to $50,000. In the opinion of Flynn and other operatives, the original amount was too small to tempt persons to risk giving information.

tends to fly to England on Saturday ped aeroplane, which would spare her hardships she endures while traveling by train.

Mme. Bernhardt announced today her desire to see her famous estate on Belle Isle. She states that the strong Atlantic air which she formerly found so beneficial is now unsuitable to her state of health.

RAIL UNION ASK HARDING FOR PARLEY

Labor Says Issues Could be Settled By Conference
With Executives

GET DATA ON PROBLEM

Closed For Hours With Experts—Will Later Hear Employees and Managers

Washington, April 1.—President Harding was urged yesterday by union labor to "use his executive influence to bring about a conference" between representatives of all railroads of the country and their employees in an effort to dispose of all pending disputes now affecting transportation. The request was in the form of a telegram sent by R.
M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor.

The President deferred decision On the appeal until the telegram was officially laid before him and in the meanwhile spent two hours consulting with E. E. Clark, chairman of the Railroad Labor Board, in an effort to obtain precise data on every angle of the railroad problem. The executive asked not only for information, but for frank opinions of how serious the condition of the carriers really is and what remedies can be applied with greatest probability of results.

Other conferences at which railroad managers and employees can present directly their recommendations are expected to follow, but it was said at the White House last night that definite dates for these consultations had not yet been fixed.
The information laid before the Chief executive is understood to have included detailed figures on the recent earnings of the carriers and nettings of shippers for lower freight rates to permit them to compete with foreign goods in American markets, and the plea of the railroad employees against any reduction in wages.

In the background of these considerations was the question of possible Government ownership, although there was no indication that it was seriously discussed. The Administration has heard suggestions, however, that unless some remedy is found soon the Government may have to shoulder the burden of rail road management indirectly by taking the properties into receivership.

"Two million railroad workers and their millions of dependents," read Mr. Jewell's telegram, "are vitaly interested in your efforts to effect a solution of the railroad problem. Obviously no policy or program that is unacceptable to them will be productive of the much desired result of co-operation, and accordingly, therefore, we urge respectfully that we will be given a voice in the determination of what is to be done."

The message referred to the President's inaugural declaration that he would "rather submit our industrial controversies to the conference table in advance than to the settlement table after conflict and suffering."
"We prefer at all times," it continued, "to adjust points of difference through mutual agreement with the railway executives, and because of the present abnormal conditions we consider it essential in the interests of all concerned to conserve time and effort by reaching an agreement through a joint conference."

"Accordingly, we urge that you use your executive influence to bring about a conference between the railway executives as they are nationally organized and the railroad employees as they are organized nationally to undertake to compose the differences on all points in dispute. Such a conference is contemplated by the Transportation act and is in keeping with the spirit of the time. We have every confidence that you can arrange it, and we will have every faith that it will be productive of immediate salutary results."

The Railroad Problem.

When President Harding calls attention to the railroad situation and announces that something must be done, he discloses no novelty. Every thoughtful person in the country realizes that the railroads are upon the verge of a collapse and have been so since the end of the guaranty period, September 1. And it also is generally known that something must be done very quickly or many of the big railroad systems will pass into bankruptcy. Nothink is gained by blinking at the facts. Most of the roads are not earning expenses. If the average man does not earn enough to pay his rent he may get by for a time, but the day of his eviction is not far distant.

So it is with the railroads. Nothing can prevent their failure if conditions remain as they are. The public generally realizes this and consequently the emphasis placed upon the situation by the President will not come as a surprise.

What is wanted is an antidote for this condition. President Harding has announced that he will confer with the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Chairman of the Railroad Labor Board, but there will be great curiosity to know whether either of these gentlemen or the President has a remedy to suggest. Will they recommend a general reduction of wages and a proportionate reduction of rates? Will they suggest abrogation of the national agreements under which the roads are operating? What, in short, do they have to propose?

Perhaps the matter will be put up to congress and if it is it probably will be used as a political football with scant hope of arriving at a practical and useful solution of the problem. The country will await with interest Mr. Harding's conferences but it will await with much deeper concern an announcement of policy which promises to clarify the situation and put the transportation system back upon a sound and efficient basis.

For President Harding has appointed a committee to ascertain what is wrong with the administration of the laws for soldiers relief and to devise some practical remedy. This committee has an important duty before it and if it exercises good judgment and a reasonable amount of energy it will be able to accomplish some benefits for the sick and wounded ex-service men. The public has a very clear idea of what the trouble has been and what it wants now is a remedy. Congress has voted liberal appropriations for the ex-service men but there has not been the teamwork among the government agencies in administering these appropriations that there should have been. This lack of co-ordination and co-operation is really back of the complaints that have become so general, as the President's committee will find. The war risk bureau, the public health service and the board for vocational education all have had a part in taking care of the veterans but they have worked independently and for that reason the desired results have not been obtained.

Now, what should be done to get the best results? If the President's committee can answer that query satisfactorily it will give to congress information upon which steps can be taken to cure a very unsatisfactory situation. One thing is certain something must be done at once to give to the sick and wounded soldiers the full measure of relief which the country wishes them to have and which congress intended they should have. The report of this extraordinary committee will be awaited with interest.

Not It is evident All that the Republicans will not have clear sailing in putting through their program of legislation at the extra session of congress, even though they have big majorities in both House and Senate. Differences of opinion are developing which threaten to cause considerable trouble before the session adjourns.

The senators from the granger states of the west demand that the emergency tariff bill, passed at the last session and vetoed by President Wilson, shall be repassed in the interest of the farmers, but Senator Penrose, chairman of the finance committee, and others have declared that they will not support this bill unless it includes an anti-dumping provision and another providing for American valuation of imports.

Here at once is a clash as the westerners insist that the emergency tariff bill shall pass in precisely the same form that it had in the last congress. There is a fear that if it is opened up for amendment various other interests will insist upon being included in its provisions and the result may be that it will get into a jam which may delay its passage indefinitely.

Another point upon which there is a divergence of opinion is whether the tariff bill or the tax revision bill shall take precedence. A tentative agreement has been made that tariff shall be taken up first but that is not at all satisfactory to a great many Republican representatives and senators who think tariff revision should be postponed as long as possible in order to give business a better opportunity to resume a normal basis.

There are other matters upon which opinions differ and some of them may cause revolts in the Republican party. From the first it has been predicted that with the top heavy majority in the House and a big majority in the Senate the Republicans would find it no easy task to maintain harmony in their ranks, and the evidence of this is now beginning to show.

International Service

Service on the road is, of course, the all important requisite of a motor truck. It must stand up under continuous daily use.

But service has another side.

There comes a time in the life of every motor truck, no matter how good it is, when some part requires replacement or adjustment. If, when that time comes, the necessary part is easy to get, without loss of time or the man to make the adjustment is immediately available—that is SERVICE.

INTERNATIONAL MOTOR TRUCKS are built with SERVICE as the foundation. These trucks will serve you well because they are "factory built," not assembled, and because the company that builds them has at stake an enviable reputation for building high grade machinery, a reputation that has endured for nearly a century and which it is bound to maintain.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

A most enjoyable dance was given last night by the Loyal Order of Moose, in their home, corner Duke and Royal streets.

W. A. Sims and wife have sold to William P. Woolfs house and lot, 418 Queen street. A deed of transfer was recorded today.

A meeting of the executive committee in charge of the plans for the drive for the relief of the suffering women and children of Ireland will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the rooms of the chamber of commerce when final plans will be completed for an intensive drive.

The Rev. Dr. Paca Kennedy, of the Virginia Theological Seminary, will occupy the pulpit at St. Paul's Church on Sunday. At the morning service there will be morning prayer with sermon and Holy Communion. The hour for Sunday School has been changed back to 9:30, instead of 9:15, as on the last few Sundays.

2 TO DIE IN CHAIR

FOR SLAYING GUARD
Orange, Va., April 1.—Clarence Brown and Henry Barnes, negro convicts, will die in the electric chair for the murder of W. E. Snow, a guard during a sensational dash for liberty by five prisoners, according to action of the jury trying the case here today.

Brown, who confessed on the stand to the actual murder of the guard, will die on June 28, and Barnes two days later.

When the case was called, counsel was assigned the men by the court. Brown refused at first to plead not guilty. Later, however, he changed his mind and his counsel succeeded in entering a plea of not guilty.

Barnes, however, categorically denied every charge made against him and directed a dogged fight by his counsel. Appeals in both cases were noted by counsel.

Barnes is alleged to have been the "master mind" in the escape and is said to have assigned the parts played by each convict in the escape. He was originally convicted in Southampton County of house-burning, for which he was serving eight years. The escape for which he was this time convicted was his fourth attempt, the previous three resulting unsuccessfully. As a result of these strainings at the leashes his term had been so lengthened that out of his original eight years, after serving four, he yet had fourteen years to serve.

Brown was convicted in Frederick County of voluntary manslaughter and was serving a five-year term at the time of his escape.

Barracks Blown Up,

18 Policemen Reported Killed Dublin, April 1.—The Rosscarbery police barracks, north of Cork, were blown up this morning during an attack by a large civilian force, according to a dispatch received at Dublin Castle today.

Six police were reported killed and twelve seriously wounded. Later reports of unofficial nature declared loss of life among the attacked garrison was much heavier than at first thought, and said that only two police of the garrison of twenty escaped the burning building.

The front wall was blown off the Rosscarbery barracks early in the attack, which was launched at 2 o'clock, and almost immediately the building burst into flames. The police defended their position until driven out by the fire.

While they were bombing roads leading into the town the attackers were surprised by military reinforcements and a battle ensued. It is reported they escaped with light casualties.

According to Dublin Castle there have been 1,000 casualties in Ireland during the last three months. It is stated that 490 persons were killed in this period.

BURROUGHS TO REST

BESIDE LOVED ROCK
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 1.—Beside the big rock on Burroughs' farm, near Roxbury, a spot endeared to John Burroughs from boyhood, the body of the naturalist will be buried Sunday.

The rock, overlooking a small spring from which Burroughs drank in youth and old age, will serve as his monument.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at the Burroughs home at West Park by the Rev. Franklin D. Elmer.

The final rites will be held in accordance with the simplicity requested by the naturalist. Relatives and friends, especially his children and friends of the neighborhood, will be mourners.

FREIGHT INSPECTORS OFFER

TO WORK WITHOUT SALARY
New York, April 1.—Freight inspectors on railroads east of Pittsburgh have offered to work without salary, but on a designated percentage basis. Harry Weinberger, attorney for the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks and Associate Workers, declined here last night.

Alleging the inspectors were locked out on the pretense that there is no freight, the attorney asserted the men will agree to be paid only on a percentage of amounts "actually saved to the railroad by discovered improper classifications."

SPRING REDUCTION

IN PRICES ON COAL:

We are today reducing our prices on both Anthracite and Bituminous coal and will be glad to enter orders for Spring delivery.

The mines claim their present prices are as low as their cost of production will permit and that Anthracite coal will be higher by Fall.

The preparation and the quality of the coal we are now receiving is better than it has been for several years.

The freight is still high but there seems very little likelihood of a reduction shortly.

We have been able to reduce our cost of handling and our trade gets the benefit of this saving.

It is not possible for us to know whether this is the best time to buy your winter's coal, but we are sure that a reasonable tonnage will have to be mined, transported and delivered through the Spring and Summer months to avoid a coal shortage and high prices next Fall and Winter.

PENNSY MEN REFUSE OUT

Pittsburgh, April 1.—The first of a series of wage conferences between executives of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and representatives of employees ended late yesterday, when the delegates, named to present the case of the 35,000 maintenance of way and structures and unskilled forces, refused to accept a wage reduction, ranging from 15 to 25 per cent.

The committee of general managers of the road, in charge of the conference, suggested that the workers in question accept the cut. Representatives of the men held a separate meeting late in the afternoon, and they decided, on behalf of the employees, to reject the proposed reduction. This refusal automatically threw the case into the hands of the United States Railroad Labor Board.

The conference yesterday was the initial meeting between representatives of the company and its employees. On Saturday the managers will meet with representatives of signal men.

BODIES OF 200 YANKS FOUND

Paris, April 1.—Nearly 200 bodies of American soldiers have been discovered, more than two years after the armistice, hidden in recesses of the Argonne forest.

The American graves registration office has been able to identify 130 of the bodies, but the remainder are so decayed or mutilated that identification is likely to prove an impossibility.

Virginia Students Parade
Victory Cup Before Rivals

Bristol, Tenn., April 1.—Intense rivalry over the outcome of a basketball game played here last night reached its climax yesterday when more than 200 students of the Bristol Virginia High School walked out of the High School Building during school hours and marched across the trolley line to the Bristol Tenn. High School, where a demonstration was held.

The Virginia students tried to enter the Tennessee building, but the doors and windows were locked and police on both sides of the city were called out to quell the demonstration.

In the basketball game Tuesday night the Bristol (Virginia) school team defeated Bristol, Tennessee, by a score of 21 to 18, thus winning a silver cup offered for the city championship in a three game series.

After leaving their building yesterday in a body, the Virginia students marched downtown, where they got the cup and then, cheering and singing, "snake danced" to the Tennessee building. Members of the Tennessee faculty restrained their charges with difficulty when the rivals appeared on the campus. After the demonstration most of the Virginia students returned to their school.

VIVIANI PAYS RESPECTS TO PRESIDENT HARDING

Washington, April 1.—Rene Viviani, former Premier of France, was received by President Harding at the White House late yesterday after he had formally presented his credentials as an envoy extraordinary to this country to Secretary Hughes at the State Department.

At both the White House and State Department visits, M. Viviani was accompanied by Ambassador Jasseraud and, according to statements by officials at their conclusion, the former Premier's visit remains nothing more than "one of courtesy." It was intimated by those attached to his mission, however, that as an envoy from France he would give an attentive ear to any suggestion involving the relations of France with the United States.

SPECIAL NOTICE

We are making an offer to the people of the Rosemonts to give expert yearly care to the street trees for an annual charge of fifty cents per tree. This includes at least one careful trimming and as many sprayings as may be necessary. We will also care for the trees in event of sudden injury or decline and replace any that may die at actual cost.

It is especially desirable to maintain symmetry of growth and to do all possible to keep the trees healthy from the standpoint of property values, and by placing this matter in the hands of experts, the owner is relieved of all trouble and improvement will be noticed after the first treatment.

We must necessarily have the owners cooperation in starting this movement, and we respectfully request all interested parties to communicate with us at the earliest possible opportunity.

In event that we receive enough responses to prove a community interest in this matter, we will take immediate steps to explain our offer personally.

GOOD COAL NEWS
(Communicated)
The price of summer coal in Alexandria is as low as $12.50 per ton, which is the prevailing price of coal in any part of the United States, with the business being made for the various freight differentials. Our summer price on coal is not only 50 cents a ton under what it was a month ago, but at $12.50 per ton this represents a reduction of $1.25 to $1.75 under what coal has sold for in Alexandria during the past winter. And even during the past winter, when coal was so reasonably high, and when it was necessary to buy coal from the independent operators, it should be remembered that the Alexandria price has been as low as anywhere in the United States.

Today, according to the Baltimore American, Baltimoreans must pay $13.16 cash for each net ton of stove coal purchased. In Alexandria we are selling the same coal for $12.50, which means that our price is 86 cents per ton under the Baltimore price.

In answer to a telephone inquiry we made of a leading Washington dealer, we find that the Washington price of stove coal, dumped on sidewalk, is $13.89 per net ton, which means that the Alexandria people are getting 10 cents a ton cheaper than the Washington people.

Concerning the advance of 10 cents a month, as stated by the papers, this is nothing new in the coal trade, but unless the people begin now to buy their coal so that the dealer can enjoy the use and reuse of his purchasing capital, the companies will be able to supply the local dealers with only about one third of their requirements.

For the other two thirds of their requirements, the coal dealer will have to apply to the independent operator, who does not increase his price by 10 cents a month, but is noted for taking leaps in ratios of 25 cents, 50 cents, 75 cents, and even $3.00 a ton.

Coal is $1.25 to $1.75 a ton cheaper for the reason that now we can get all our coal from the "companies," we don't know for how many months we can get all our coal from the "companies," but we do know that if later on we have to buy from the independent operators, that there will be nothing else to do but to pass on to our trade any increase that the independent operator might feel inclined to charge for the coal that we will be compelled to buy of him.

We urge, from a purely disinterested viewpoint, that as many people of Alexandria as possible buy their coal now. This will not only give the dealer the use and reuse of his purchasing capital, but will mean a substantial saving to all those who feel able to buy their coal now.

If the law of averages prevail next winter will be an exceptionally severe winter, and when it does come we want to see everybody in Alexandria prepared for it.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 1.—Asking that the Mayor, Law Director and Chief of Police of the city of Cleveland be restrained from further arrests of its representatives selling copies of the Dearborn Independent on the streets, suit was filed here yesterday afternoon by the Michigan Company in Federal court Judge D. C. Watenhafer set the case for hearing on April 9.

Do you wake up tired?

If you feel "lazy," listless, sleepy at the wrong time, it is a danger signal. Probably your vigor is being sapped by "self-poisoning."

Self-poisoning through constipation leads to the most dangerous diseases. When you allow constipation to take hold of your system, you are paving the way to the whole train of serious illnesses which follow.

Pills, castor oil, laxative waters and salts only force, and irritate the bowels and make constipation a habit.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet: "Thirty Feet of Danger."
